

London CreationTrip

September 18-27, 2017

Hello and thank you for your interest in joining with the Genesis Creation Science Institute for our 2017 CreationTrip tour to London, England! This packet will hopefully help answer any questions you have and provide you with important information about the trip.

Our LONDON 2017 trip will be a combination of learning, exploration, and fun as we journey to the best sites throughout this historic city!

London is a city full of amazing rich history, fantastic sights, and is the birthplace of many world-shaping movements in culture, science, religion and more. We invite you to immerse yourself in this history and create life-long memories with us as we journey together and experience all that London has to offer.

Why go on a GCSI CreationTrip?

Sure, you can go to places like London by yourself or with another tour group...and you may never know what you're missing. But we don't think that's good enough. With CreationTrip, we're here to show you a whole new aspect that you may never gain otherwise.

One thing people have always said about our trips and tours is that they get to explore and experience the rarely seen parts and places that the average tour just doesn't go to. That's certainly the case with our London tour. From easily missed and hidden rooms at Westminster Abbey, to the best hole-in-the-wall curry spot in Earl's Court, we have lots of hidden gems to show you that will make you feel like a true London insider.

What sets us apart from your average point-and-talk tour is that we try to incorporate biblical history, creation science, and spiritual application into everything we do. At various locations we will showcase features that help give insight into the rise, reformation, and revival of Christianity throughout England the rest of Europe. We will also highlight aspects of the battle between the Bible and evolutionary teaching, and the relationship between science and scripture.

Above and beyond all else, will strive to honor God and bring glory to His name in everything we do, as we grow together throughout our time sightseeing and exploring this amazing historical city.

What will we see and do?

How many people will be with us?

In order to engage with everyone on this trip and provide a truly open learning environment and flexibility for activities we are limiting this trip to only 10-15 attendees. This helps us be able to see the behind-the-scenes locations that large groups just can't accommodate for, and it helps us travel, learn, and grow together as a family during these 10 days.

All individual attendees need to be at least 18 years old, or at least 16 if traveling and staying with parents. At CreationTrip we're all about developing personal relationships with other believers and helping them strengthen their personal relationship with their Creator God.

Why do you not include the cost of airfare in the trip?

There are a few reasons why we ask you to make your own travel arrangements to and from London. Firstly, we have people attending our trips from all over the US and other countries. To book a group flight from the US to England would be difficult for schedules, as well as more costly in the long run because everyone would need to meet together in a departure city, often necessitating they book an additional flight to that city.

The other reason we don't book a group flight is that it gives the trip participants more flexibility with their travel preferences. Some may have a preferred airline or frequent flyer program they use. Others choose to make the London CreationTrip part of a larger trip and may arrive in London a few days before, or stay a few days after we're done with our tour. By asking everyone to make their own travel arrangements to and from London, we are allowing for the maximum flexibility and least expensive travel options available.

We're always here to help with any questions or travel plans you may have, from what airports and hotels we recommend before or after our trip, to catching the Eurostar to Paris! Let us know any questions you may have!

What about food?

Food is one of those things that is difficult to plan for and make everyone happy, especially in a different environment than you may be used to. This is why as we travel to various locations throughout the day, it will be up to you to decide what you would like to purchase and eat at places we stop at or are nearby. That's part of the reason we don't factor food into the cost of this particular CreationTrip, as everyone has different preferences and budgets.

We highly recommend you try various things and really enjoy the great international foods that London has to offer. From classic fish and chips to exotic curries and carved kebabs, London is full of delectable culinary surprises!

How will we get around London?

We will be travelling the same 3 main ways every other Londoner does on a daily basis!

London Underground. Most often referred to as “The Tube”. This will be our primary means of travel as we venture daily to the various museums and attractions we visit. The first underground metro rail ever created, and still one of the most used and most efficient underground travel systems in the world...MIND THE GAP!

London Bus System. Yes, they still have the classic red buses and they are used every day! Some are a standard single level bus, and others are the iconic two-level size with great views from high up as we travel down the narrow, winding London streets. These will be used less often than the tube, but what trip to London would be complete without a ride on a “Double-decker”?

Walking. London is a walking city. Whether it’s going between various attractions or just to the nearest tube station, you’ll soon find out that nearly EVERYONE walks here...probably much more than most Americans are used to. You’ll soon find yourself enjoying the walks to and from tube stations, as every corner and street shop we pass is filled with deep history and iconic London style. It’s the best way to see and experience the life of the city!

Unlimited Travel in the Heart of London

While we are together in London we will be using the Oyster travel card system. This convenient touch-and-go system will allow you unlimited travel throughout the heart of London’s Zone 1 and 2 via easy access on bus, tube, tram, DLR, London Overground and most National Rail services in London. The price of this travel around London is included in your CreationTrip.
